GOSPEL REFLECTION

The Gospel today picks up from last Sunday, which urged us not to judge (that is, condemn) others and to love even our enemies. Today, we are reminded of the reason why. We are blind guides. Our judgment of others comes from a blindness to our own faults. It predisposes an attitude that we are perfect and others are not. Sometimes our intolerance of others arises from our own lack of accepting our own faults. Christ's anecdote is to look inward and see our need for conversion and know the forgiving love of God. We must train ourselves to give thanks for the good things that come from God, including our own life and abilities. Therefore, as we examine our own life, attitudes and behaviour, let us be aware of the Lord's loving forgiveness, lest we be overwhelmed by our sinfulness. Recognizing that we are sinners helps us to accept the imperfections of others.

CONFIRMATION PARISH SESSIONS BEGIN:

JUBILEE YEAR 2025

In addition to calling the Church to renewed vigor through repentance and acts of faith, hope and charity, each Jubilee Year has a particular focus. Pope Francis has designated this Jubilee with its motto: Pilgrims of Hope. After the effects of the pandemic and unsettled condition throughout the world, he writes: “We must fan the flame of hope that has been given us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty by looking to the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far-sighted vision. ... This will indeed be the case if we are capable of recovering a sense of universal fraternity and refuse to turn a blind eye to the tragedy of rampant poverty that prevents millions of men, women, young people and children from living in a manner worthy of our human dignity. Here I think in particular of the many refugees forced to abandon their native lands. May the voices of the poor be heard throughout this time of preparation for the Jubilee, which is meant to restore access to the fruits of the earth to everyone.”
[Letter of Pope Francis]
