GOSPEL REFLECTION

The command to love God and our neighbour is not new. It formed an important prayer for all Jewish people. It is this prayer that Jesus quotes. Once again we see that Jesus has come to fulfill the Old Testament. He does this as his supreme sacrifice of love on the Cross. In the month of November we also celebrate the sacrifice of the countless men and women, the saints of God, who show us how to love and sacrifice our lives for God and neighbour. We remember the sacrifice of those who died in war to preserve freedom. We sacrifice and pray for the souls of our loved ones who have died. In all of this we see and live the positive meaning of sacrifice as something borne or endured for the good of others, as in the case of a parent who stays up all night to care for an ailing child. The sacrifice of Jesus on Calvary was his supreme gift for our human race. His sacrifice on the Cross was all-sufficient because the one who offered it was the perfect priest and also the perfect victim, fully human and humanly perfect. His sacrifice on Calvary and its acceptance by the Father who raised Jesus from the dead, makes him a priest for ever. His sacrifice is eternal, for he lives eternally in the Father's presence to make intercession for us. At Baptism we are anointed as a priestly people to continue this sacrificial mission of Jesus.

The Catholic Church gives each month of the year a unique dedication which are linked to special prayers, specific feast days, and other Catholic devotions, and are a beautiful way to focus our prayer time and grow in our faith. November is dedicated to the holy souls who have departed from this life and are enduring a time of purification before entering Heaven. Sacred Scripture invites us to remember and pray for them. One simple way to pray for the holy souls in Purgatory is by reciting a short prayer each day during the month of November.

Eternal Rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The Franciscans: Is God Calling You?

The Gospel and the “following of Jesus Christ” were not idealistic but rather “dynamic values” for St. Francis and his followers. People inspired by the Gospel values that they saw in Francis wanted to follow him. These values are the substance of Franciscans today: the Poor Clares, the Secular Franciscans (for women and men, single or married) and of the Friars. Is God “calling” you or “inviting you to be a part of the Franciscan mission? Order? Please send an email to Friar Reto Davatz at FrRDavatz@archkingston.ca.
