Gospel Reflection

Sometimes people tend to see hostility and evil all around them or that they alone are bearers of Jesus’ Spirit. This is the tendency to see people in terms of who is "in and who is "outside" of our group. This perception makes it hard to promote tolerance and dialogue and to break down the walls that separate people. In the Gospel, Jesus requires two things from these people "outside": that they are not "against" him, that is, that they do not positively combat the faith and its values, namely, that they do not willingly place themselves against God. Second, that, if they are unable to serve and love God, that they at least serve and love his image, especially in the needy. Jesus says: "whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ, will by no means lose his reward." The Second Vatican Council said that "the Holy Spirit offers everyone the possibility, in a way known only to God, to be associated with this paschal mystery of Christ and, therefore, to be saved" ["Gaudium et Spes," no. 22]. Let us rejoice with Moses and pray that God’s Spirit will be given to all, and that we will recognize and accept these gifts.

WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

September 29 “The phenomenon of migration today is a providential opportunity for the proclamation of the Gospel in the Contemporary world. People from various regions of the earth who have not encountered Jesus or know him only partially, ask to be received in countries with an ancient Christian tradition. It is necessary to find adequate ways for them to meet and to become acquainted with Jesus and to experience the invaluable gift of salvation.” Pope Benedict XVI.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

THE ART OF LIVING AND DYING

In light of the legalization of medically assisted suicide and euthanasia (MAID) throughout the world, disciples of Jesus need to cultivate the virtues and attitudes that will allow them to embrace fully the life and death God has given. In the past, the Catholic tradition emphasized preparing for a good death in order to see the face of God. We need to rediscover that way of life. In this four-part series, Father John Hibbard will share some spiritual and biblical reflections on living, illness, pain and dying in light of Jesus's own experience of suffering and death. Saint Paul the Apostle Church, in the Parish Hall. Thursday evenings on Sept 26, Oct 17 and 24 at 6:30 pm or Friday mornings, Sept 27, Oct 18 and 25 at 10:45 am.
