Gospel Reflection

There is nothing wrong with money as such, or even with being wealthy. Some of the world’s greatest people who did most for the welfare of humanity, have been wealthy people. Their secret was that they were not attached to their wealth. They were not afraid to use it and give it away. They knew that their hold on things was temporary. Jesus refers to the narrow gate at the side of the temple called the “needle.” It is wide enough for a camel to pass through, but only if the load was removed from the camel’s back. With the baskets of goods the camel normally carried on either side, it would be impossible to pass through the Needle Gate. Thus Jesus says “How hard it is for people who are weighed down with money and ambitions to enter the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom belongs to children. It belongs to the poor in spirit; not so much those who are economically poor, but those detached from riches in their inmost spirit. For a worthy cause, they can part with their wealth. On the other hand, materialism is the belief that without wealth life is meaningless.

THE ART OF LIVING AND DYING

In light of the legalization of medically assisted suicide and euthanasia (MAID) throughout the world, disciples of Jesus need to cultivate the virtues and attitudes that will allow them to embrace fully the life and death God has given. In the past, the Catholic tradition emphasized preparing for a good death in order to see the face of God. We need to rediscover that way of life. In this four-part series, Father John Hibbard will share some spiritual and biblical reflections on living, illness, pain and dying in light of Jesus's own experience of suffering and death. Saint Paul the Apostle Church, in the Parish Hall. Thursday evenings on Oct 17 and 24 at 6:30 pm or Friday mornings, Sept 27, Oct 18 and 25 at 10:45 am.
